"Washington, President," the head of Washington being totally different from any other known by American Collectors, rev. the word cent directly over the eagle which is different from any other on the Washington pieces, with expanded wings, only six stars, the condition is splendid and will be a great acquisition to an American collection I believe not more than four have ever as yet been discovered, size 21

The pieces described above were purchased by myself some five years since, under an assurance from the seller that he believed them to be original, and I have never been able to meet with any person who had ever seen them before. I regret not being able to furnish any positive information of when, or by whom, they were struck.—EDWARD COGAN.
